

COOKIES POLICY

1. What are Cookies

A cookie is a small text file which asks permission to be placed on your computer's hard drive so that we can operate the core functions of our website, perform tasks such as showing you products in your region, allowing you to watch a video and allowing you to connect with social media sites, and improve your online experience through statistical analysis of how visitors use and move around our website. Cookies help us remember your viewing preferences, while keeping your personal details protected. Software on your device, for example a web browser, stores the cookies and sends them back to a website the next time you visit. Cookies also help us provide you with a better online experience by enabling us to make the most popular features of our website the easiest to find and access.

The cookies Evolution Markets Limited ("Evolution Markets") uses cannot execute code or deliver any viruses. The cookies Evolution Markets uses do not store any sensitive or personal information about you. They do not access any information stored on your device or compromise your device's security. They allow us to provide a service whereby people can access their accounts, monitor the number of people using our website, see how people arrive at our site (via search engine or via email), gather technical information about people using our website (such as their geographical location and the type of web browsers they are using), and display content on our websites more relevant to you and your preferences based on the information we hold and your behaviour on our website.

2. The Types of Cookies That We Use

Evolution Markets uses a number of cookies in order to provide users with our service via our website and platform. We categorise them into the following groups:

- Essential: Cookies which are essential to the core functioning of our website and our service. This includes enabling you to complete account applications, remembering your login details, initiating chat or other website functionality. If you disable these cookies, which you may be able to do on your device or browser, you will not be able to fully access our platform or utilize all our services. Where we process "personal data" using essential cookies, we do so on the basis of our legitimate interests to provide a website for visitors to use and to promote our business.
- Analytical: Cookies that allow us to improve the service and website, enabling us to tailor the site to your personal preference. – Our analytics cookies may collect information about your browser type and settings, device type and settings, operating system and mobile network. Although this information is used to distinguish you from other visitors to our website, it cannot be used to identify you as a named individual. Rejecting our analytics cookies will prevent us from collecting this data and improving our site for you and other visitors.
- Marketing or "Third Party": Marketing initiatives allowing us to provide information to visitors on third party websites and measure the effectiveness of our marketing initiatives. We adhere to good online advertising practices and information can be found at <https://www.iabuk.com/>. Evolution Markets does not currently support advertising on its own website, nor does it use cookies for marketing purposes.
